

city of
greenville

News Release

FIDELITY INVESTMENTS MOONLIGHT MOVIES RETURNS TO FALLS PARK IN SEPTEMBER

City's free outdoor series features classic movies

GREENVILLE (SC) – The City of Greenville's popular Fidelity Investments Moonlight Movies returns to Falls Park Wednesday evenings in September for a four-week run. The free film series will be projected onto a giant inflatable screen and will feature movies from a wide range of genres and periods, including The Shop Around the Corner, Rudy, A Shot in the Dark and a special Viewer's Choice.

"In conjunction with the City of Greenville, we are very excited to once again sponsor the Moonlight Movies outdoor classic film series," said Mike Doucette, Vice President and Branch Manager, Fidelity Investments. "We've got some great movies lined up for September, so please join us for some great family fun under the moonlight!"

The films begin at sundown (approximately 8:00 p.m.), and moviegoers are invited to come early and bring lawn chairs, blankets and a picnic. Pets are not allowed at City special events. Individuals consuming alcohol at the event must purchase a $1 wristband. For more information about the movie series, visit the City's website at events.greenvillesc.gov or follow the events on Facebook and Twitter. A complete entertainment schedule is included below.

September 4 - The Shop Around the Corner (1940)

The delicate comic touch of director Ernst Lubitsch turns this story of a budding romance between two clerks in a Budapest shop into a witty study of human nature. The incomparable Margaret Sullavan and James Stewart make a delightful team as the clerks who fall in love through a lonely-hearts column.

September 11 - Rudy (1993)

The uplifting true story of how one young man, Rudy Ruettiger (Sean Astin), refuses to limit his dreams or bow to reality as he pursues his lifelong goal—to wear the uniform, if only for one down, of the Notre Dame football team.

September 18 - A Shot in the Dark (1964)

THE PINK PANTHER's Inspector Jacques Clouseu (Peter Sellers) unwittingly solves a murder in this hilarious mystery. Finding it impossible to believe that the gorgeous Maria Gambrelli (Elke Sommer) is capable of murdering her lover, Clouseu sets out to discover who really "dun it."

People's Choice: September 25

Vote for your favorite flick; winner will be announced in September!

Superman (1978)

You'll believe a man can fly in this, the spectacular motion picture that started it all! Filled with astonishing special effects and featuring top-quality performances by an all-star cast, SUPERMAN THE MOVIE stars Christopher Reeve as Clark Kent, mild-mannered reporter for the Daily Planet who is, in reality, the Man of Steel, protector of truth, justice, and the American way.

Harvey (1950)

The classic James Stewart comedy is now available for the first time in many years! Stewart stars as Elwood, a good-natured man with a six-foot tall rabbit that only he can see. When his sister tries to have him committed, a mix-up occurs and she is committed instead, leaving it up to Elwood and "Harvey" to straighten out the mess.

All the King's Men (1949)

An adaptation of Robert Penn Warren's Pulitzer Prize-winning novel said to be based on the career of Huey Long. Broderick Crawford and Mercedes McCambridge both won Oscars for their performances in this film depicting political corruption.

###